“DISCOVER THE PILLARS OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANGEMENT AND THE EMERGING ROLE OF INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERS IN THE PERPETUAL REVOLUTION IN THE DIGITAL ECONOMY”

On our forthcoming Annual General Assembly, we will again feature the critical success consideration in establishing a supply chain management program. Being an increasing area of concern and focus of most companies, it is imperative to highlight the foundation in order to face the challenges and anticipate growth pains. We have invited MR. RENE T. DOMINGO, a professor from Asian Institute of Management to discuss the subject entitled: “THE PILLARS OF A SUCCESSFUL SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT.” The presentation will focus on the important aspects of SCM to ensure that the company will establish a stronger foundation and become competitive in its operations.

We likewise invited MR. NILO S. CRUZ, president and managing director of Hewlett Packard Philippines Corp. to discuss the subject entitled: “THE EMERGING ROLE OF INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERS IN THE DIGITAL ECONOMY.” The presentation will feature the pivotal functions of industrial engineers in the advent of new technologies and introduction of critical system and best practices to stay competitive and generate more productivity.

During this half day event (8 am-12 noon), we will also have the report on the various achievements and on-going programs of PIIE, induction of new members, voting and ratifying of new provisions relevant to the creation of Certification Board and amendment of the membership categories.
