

Villa Escudero (7 Hours)

Two and a half hours south of Manila is the quaint and historic Villa Escudero. The Villa is set amidst a pastoral grove of coconut palms, verdant fields and mountains to bring one back to the days of the old plantation life. Highlights of the tour are the museum of historic, religious, cultural, Pre-Hispanic and World War II artifacts. It includes the longest one-piece marble table that was transported during the galleon trade and still listed in the Guinness Book of World Records. A Carabao-drawn cart transports you around the plantation to observe coconut harvesting and processing. Then picnickers are brought to a man-made waterfall where lunch is served on tables set over a flowing stream. Then it's a walk to the pools for a refreshing cool down and relaxation. On weekends, enjoy the cultural show presented to the visitors to entertain and give something that is incomparable to any in the Philippines.
